Executive Summary

The 39th session of the Economic Commission for Latin America and the Caribbean (ECLAC), held in Buenos Aires from 24-26 October 2022, convened representatives from 32 member states, UN agencies, and intergovernmental organizations. The session focused on transformative recovery amid cascading crises, emphasizing the need for a new development model centered on production, inclusion, and sustainability. Key themes included addressing inequality, promoting employment, sustainable investment, digital transformation, climate action, and strengthening regional cooperation and multilateralism. High-level panels discussed globalization changes, employment creation, sectoral investment, and international cooperation. The session adopted resolutions supporting integrated development approaches, gender equality, social development, digital inclusion, and regional planning. ECLAC reaffirmed its role as a center of excellence for policy analysis and technical cooperation, aligning its 2024 work program with the 2030 Agenda and sustainable development goals. The meeting underscored the urgency of bold policies, innovative financing, and strengthened governance to overcome the region's challenges and foster inclusive, sustainable growth.
